

ay 20, 2012 (The Cathedral of St. John the at 4:00 p.m. (co-sponsored with the Cathedral

Items of Interest

– Sunday, December 11 (4:00 p.m.), The 7 E. 12th Avenue, Spokane

uesday, December 21 (5:00 and 8:00 p.m.), nd, Coeur d'Alene

Britten's "A Ceremony of Carols" featuring the on Norris. Tickets at nwsmc.org. Chapter NWSMC

December, 2011

Voices

Spokane Chapter, American Guild of

Dean's Notes

Dean's Notes

Dear Members and Friends of the Spokane Chapter of of Organists,

It is the Saturday after Thanksgiving and as I prepare tent, I am grateful to each one of you for your faithful participation in the Spokane Chapter of The American The sum of our individual efforts results in a significant greater Spokane area!

I was not able to attend the Open House at The V University) on November 2 as the newly installed pr Marceau and Associates Pipe Organi Builders, Inc chapter members for the first time. Thank you to Ja nizing the event and to everyone who attended, p other ways.

Believe it or not, in January 2012, we will begin th nominations for chapter elections, seeking officers to mer of 2012 through the summer of 2014. If you ar the nominating committee, I hope you will say "yes!"

Upcoming Spokane Chapter AGO

A "Teaching Concert" with the Decolores Handbell December 10, 2011 (Beautiful Savior Lutheran Conklin) at 6:30 p.m. Under the direction of Blar ores Handbell Choir will ring six and one half octaves of handchimes. Their repertoire will focus on music o mas season and various handbell techniques will be o ter's co-sponsorship of this event will include attendi ing cookies for the reception. A freewill offering will Decolores Handbell Choir in their work.

Annual Epiphany Party – Friday, January 6, 2012 Roland's home, 4019 S Suncrest Drive, Verada meal will be a potluck and you are asked to be read tached to help you find the Roland residence if this is

An additional chapter event or two will be add or March 2012. Watch for details in our next newsle